I still have another section to look at so if you have the time and are willing, I think you should do it. If I end up with time, I could always give it a second pair of eyes.

Does this mean you do not need or want me to comment back to OPRA?

Subject: new deadline dates for Dewey-Burdock

Hello All,

Our new "go live" date is November 18. My goal is to have documents in final form by Nov 10.

Jean & Kimi – If you could get EJ comments back to me by COB Oct 21, that would be great.

Nat, Lisa, Lucita – I will have the last 3 sections + conclusions of the cumulative effect analysis document to you by Monday morning. It will be less than 25 pages.

Sara- would you be able to get comments on the air section back to me by COB Oct 21?

Thanks SO much for your help with these documents!

Valois
